

YOU'RE INVITED

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY CANCER ACTION NETWORK
ACHIEVING HEALTH EQUITY:
A CONVERSATION ABOUT CANCER CARE IN THE GREEN MOUNTAINS

PRESENTING SPONSOR: PFIZER

NOVEMBER 13, 2020
10:00 AM TO 11:30 AM

Cancer impacts everyone, but it doesn't impact everyone equally. ACS CAN is hosting Vermont's inaugural policy forum in virtual format on November 13th. The dynamic virtual discussion will center on achieving health equity in our state with speakers addressing rurality's impact on access to care, disparities in cancer screenings and disparities in tobacco use.

Speakers:

Mark Levine, M.D.- Commissioner of Health, Vermont Department of Health

Taylor Small- Director of Health and Wellness, Pride Center of Vermont

Andrea Villanti, Ph.D., M.P.H. – Associate Professor, University of Vermont

Moderator:

Kesha Ram- Former State Representative, Vermont House of Representatives

To register for this event, please visit FightCancer.org/AchievingHealthEquity

For More Information Please Contact:

Natalie Shurtleff at Natalie.Shurtleff@cancer.org or 203.572.2995

Or visit FightCancer.org/AchievingHealthEquity

Contributions or membership payments to the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network, Inc., are not tax deductible.