The University of Vermont Center on Aging and UVM Geriatric Medicine program will host presentations by international experts Horst Vollmar, M.D., M.P.H., and Mary Austrom, Ph.D., on August 3, 2018. The presentations will focus on “Caring for Caregivers” and “Transitions from Hospital to Home.”

The presentations are free and open to the public and community members. Professionals who work with older adults are encouraged to attend.

Event will take place on Friday, August 3rd from Noon to 1:30 pm. and will be held in the Medical Education Center, Med Ed 300 (Reardon Classroom). This is in the University of Vermont Larner College of Medicine. Parking is available in the garage at the UVM Medical Center. Refreshments will be served.

Vollmar, a professor of medicine and chief of the Department of General Medicine at Ruhr University Bochum in Germany, will present on supporting patients during their transitions from hospital to home using care managers.

Austrom, who is the Wesley P. Martin Professor of Alzheimer’s Education and Associate Dean for Diversity Affairs at the Indiana University School of Medicine, will speak about taking excellent care of caregivers.

This event is made possible by the Mark H. Beers, MD ’82 Fund in Geriatrics.

DIRECTIONS TO UVM MEDICAL CENTER PARKING GARAGE

From East Avenue entrance to UVM/UVM MEDICAL CENTER campus (next to Hope Lodge): Turn onto Carrigan Drive, then, at the traffic light, turn right onto Beaumont Avenue. Follow Beaumont Avenue to the underground parking garage, which will be on your right, before you get to the main entrance to the UVM Medical Center.

From Colchester Ave. entrance: Turn into campus at traffic light. Go straight at series of stop signs along Mary Fletcher Drive, which will bring you around the outside perimeter of the UVM Medical Center. At the stop sign in front of the main entrance to the UVM Medical Center, make a left onto Beaumont Avenue and then another left into the underground parking garage.

The Reardon Classroom (MedEd 300) is located in the UVM Larner College of Medicine’s Medical Education Center. To access the classroom from the UVM Medical Center parking garage, go to level 2 (orange) and take the hallway to the coffee kiosk, then make a left through the doors past the Davis Auditorium (on right). Continue down the corridor into the Larner College of Medicine, past the Dana Medical Library and Larner Learning Commons on the left, to the stairs. Take the stairs (or the elevator) up to the third floor of the Medical Education Center, go straight, past the elevator on the right, and at the end of the hall you will arrive at Reardon Classroom.
