

Vermont Center on Behavior & Health

The University of Vermont

8th Annual Conference

Rural Addiction and Health

Call for Poster Abstracts

October 8-9, 2020

Virtual Conference

The 8th Annual VCBH Conference will focus on Rural Health and Addiction. We are bringing together renowned researchers in intersectional fields that include infectious disease, addiction, cancer, and cardiovascular disease.

We are pleased to announce our call for poster abstracts focused research related to rural addiction and health. This includes research that addresses health-related behaviors by rurality or a health-related behavior or outcome that is over-represented in rural areas. Abstracts will be evaluated on the basis of scientific merit. Please send submissions (including title, authors, affiliations, and 250-word abstract) to Diann Gaalema at diann.gaalema@med.uvm.edu by August 28.

This year's keynote speaker is Steven Woolf, MD. MPH, Professor of Family Medicine and Population Health at Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) and Health Equity Director Emeritus and Senior Advisor at the VCU Center on Society and Health. Dr. Woolf's areas of expertise include health services research, health promotion and disease prevention, and social justice and health disparities.

To view our conference agenda and register, please visit the VCBH conference webpage.