Housekeeping

- Clinical Skills Exam
 - Looking into placement on academic calendar
- Jumpstart VIC – Steven Everse, Paula Tracy, Liz McElhinney
 - General Information
 - Earlier release of Jumpstart information to newly matriculated students
 - Course reduced from 4 weeks to 3
 - Same course structure as last year
 - Online course will open earlier
 - July 7th
 - Material taken from MCAT prep
 - Skewed towards information from first block of FOCS
 - Don't cover social or psychological sciences
 - No movement of curricula out of FOCS
 - New Material
 - Introduce OneNote learning session
 - Learn how to use and organize material in the interface prior to start of semester
 - Student Feedback from class of 2023

- Ideas
 - Release skeleton of calendar with timing of courses rather than the content of the course
 - Present disclaimer that this is not a finalized version before an early release
 - Raj and Chad to draft a proposal
- Foundations
- Clerkship
 - Grading
 - Honors determination
 - 30% of grade allocated to the exam, 70% for clinical skills
 - Those > 50th percentile receive honors on shelf exam
 - Students who achieve this cutoff generally receive honors
 - LIC students take shelf exam in the middle of the clerkship
 - Leads to ineligibility to honor early on, decreasing motivation
 - Discussed switch to weigh evaluations over exam grade for honors qualifications
 - Emphasize clinical development rather than exam score
 - Possibly make shelf exams pass/fail
 - Include high pass/pass/fail?
 - Evaluation emphasis
 - Create standardized letter of evaluation
 - Looks at performance in more objective manner with allowance for subjective comments
 - Eliminate use of vague terminology
 - Looking to other schools for revised evaluation forms
 - Considerations
 - Will the evaluation form be a standardized form across every clerkship?
 - How will this impact step 2 scores?
 - Which student population would improve with this system?
 - Possible retrospective look prior to implementation
- SJC

Dates/Planning for Spring 2020: SEG Retreat
