Subject: GHHS is seeking a summer intern

The Arnold P. Gold Foundation champions the human connection in healthcare. We engage schools and their students, health systems, companies, and individual clinicians in the joy and meaning of humanistic healthcare, so that patients and their families can be partners in collaborative, compassionate and scientifically excellent care (<http://www.gold-foundation.org/>).

The Gold Humanism Honor Society (GHHS) now has more than 160 chapters in medical schools and residency programs. More than 35,000 medical students, physicians, and other leaders have been inducted and serve as role models of the human connection in healthcare.

The Arnold P. Gold Foundation is seeking a volunteer summer intern to assist in with the administrative tasks of the Gold Humanism Honor Society and other additional programs. At this point, all of the work of the Foundation remains remote, but staff will provide daily mentorship and specific projects.

Please forward this opportunity along to your students! If they are interested in applying for this internship, please have them complete the application process outlined below.

Warm regards,
Louisa Tvito, MSW
Director, Gold Humanism Honor Society and Program Initiatives
