

*Full Name	Matt Tsai, UVMLarnerMed M4
Target audience	M3s/co2021
*Posting Title	"The M4 Report" - New Teaching Case Series
*Summative Statement/"Hook Sentence"	M4 Report is a new initiative consisting of peer-run, clinical teaching sessions across different specialties that are designed for rising M4 students.
Additional Information	The full schedule is available at our google sign-up sheet. Dr. Emily Greenberger is overseeing this initiative with the help of M4s Matt Tsai and Dylan Koundakjian These are 1-hour zoom sessions in which a med student presenter walks other participants through components of a clinical case including history, physical exam, workup, problem representation and differential, and clinical plan. Student participants weigh in at each step (e.g. "I want to ask X, order Y test because of Z"). The presenter provides answers and controls the flow of discussion (e.g. "Y test came back negative, we did not ask X--what are you thinking?") Faculty experts are available to offer insights as needed. Each session concludes with teaching take-away points. Presenters work one-on-one with faculty to prepare each session beforehand.
