Dear LCOM Community,

Thank you all for waiting patiently for an update on this year's apparel order.

Due to backed up shipping ports, increased demand for apparel, and employee shortages, LL Bean has backordered many of options we wanted to provide the Larner community this fall.

Therefore, our UVM Larner Med apparel order will take place in January 2022. The traditional yearly sweater fleece options as well as some new spring wear will be available with this order.

We are continuing to work diligently with our university partners and LL Bean to ensure we are on track to place these orders in the new year. We understand that is a frustrating delay on the typical order, so we want to thank you for your patience, and understanding. If there are any further questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to shoot us an email.

Sincerely,
Your Medical Student Council
