The following is sent from Christa Zehle, MD

Dear OME colleagues,

I am delighted to introduce you to the newest members of the Office of Medical Education.

Kylie Sigrist joins the Administration Team as an Administrative Assistant for OME. Kylie will be the new face of OME, greeting all guests on their arrival. Kylie recently moved here from Montana where she was an Executive Assistant at Bozeman High School and was integral in their school process for returning to in-person learning during the pandemic.

Erin Dunne is a new Instructional Designer, joining our Curriculum Team on Monday. She is a 2019 graduate of the UVM College of Education and Social Services. Since receiving her degree in Secondary Education, she has worked as a teacher and curriculum developer at South Burlington High School and the Sara Holbrook Community Center in Burlington. She is currently enrolled in the Interdisciplinary Disability Studies Graduate Certificate program here at UVM.

Kelly Becker is a new Instructional Designer, joining our Curriculum Team on Monday. She has been an educator for more than 20 years and has a background in theater as well as education, integrating the use of the arts into her teaching and research. She has been a lecturer in the Department of Education at UVM since 2016. In addition to her teaching and curriculum development work, she has contributed to faculty development programs through the Center for Teaching and Learning.

We are excited to welcome our new colleagues to the Larner College of Medicine. Please join me in welcoming Kylie, Erin and Kelly to our medical education team.

With appreciation,
Christa
