Subject: Staffing Update from Dr. Elise Everett
Date: Monday, June 13, 2022 1:20:31 PM

The following is from Dr. Elise Everett

Dear OMSE Colleagues,

In 2009 Jacqueline Drouin joined the Larner College of Medicine and has worked with our Curriculum/Clerkship Level team, ensuring students' a smooth and seamless transition into the clinical curriculum. She has been an upbeat, creative, and problem-solving employee ever since. Jacqueline was a contributor to Dean Page's Statement on Professionalism Task Force, where she worked with LCOM cohorts to create a college statement which reflects a core value of our institution. Last week, Jacqueline notified us that she has decided to take some time to focus on her family and pursue job opportunities more aligned with her degree. Therefore, she will be resigning her position as our Clinical Education Coordinator effective 7/8/22.

The Curriculum Team, OME and all of LCOM wants to extend their best wishes and appreciation to Jacqueline for all she has contributed to our students, our team and OME.

There will be more information coming soon about recruitment for this role within OME.

Kind regards,
Elise Everett
