

Hello Class of 2023,

The Wellness Committee would like to announce the representatives of the Class of 2023: Rachel Adelsheim, Jesse Naumann, Kali Amoah, Agatha Fornstein, and Liana Mathias.

Please view them as your go-to classmates for any wellness concerns, ideas, or questions. They will serve as your liaisons for issues that pertain to mental and physical health, and anything else that comes with being an overall “well” medical student. But again, please feel free to reach out to any representatives from other classes, or any of the advisors as well (Dr. Lee Rosen, Dr. Natalie Feldman, Dr. Michael Upton, and Dr. Allison Fitzgerald).

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you!
