#FrontLineFaces: Join our call for human connection in this pandemic by sharing your photos and stories

Join us in honoring clinicians' courage and compassion and recognizing their humanity in this fight, while making space for patients and everyone on the front lines to share their personal stories and be seen. Please share your #FrontLineFaces photos and stories.

Submit your photos and stories to the #FrontLineFaces project at info@gold-foundation.org or post your photo and story on social media with the hashtag #FrontLineFaces. On Twitter and Instagram, please tag us @GoldFdn. Thank you for helping Keep Healthcare Human!

Friendly Reminder: In light of the current COVID-19 pandemic, avoid gathering in large groups, please wash your hands, and try your darndest not to touch your face (I know the face one is super difficult; I believe in us!).
