Additional Information	Hi everyone, As the Larner College of Medicine prepares to (eventually) return students to the clinical environment, we need to make sure everyone has a mask to wear. We are looking for your help in mask making! You do not have to be a seamstress to participate! We have blue recycled surgical material for this and will provide you with the materials to sew. After we complete this project, we will begin to make cotton fabric masks to donate to the hospital. At this point, we will also be accepting donations of fabric, elastic bands, and other masks materials if you cannot sew. Ways in which you can help: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1.
