

The heart and science of medicine.

UVMHealth.org/MedCenter

Movement Disorders Fellowship

Program Director: Lisa Deuel, MD

Program Coordinator: Brandolyn Bradley

— THE —
University of Vermont
MEDICAL CENTER

Fellowship Structure

- Started in 2020
- One-year clinical fellowship
 - Diagnosis and management of Movement Disorders
 - Training in botulinum toxin injections
 - DBS surgery – identifying candidates, programming, OR time
 - Baclofen pump programming / refills
 - Skin biopsies
- Opportunity for teaching and outreach
 - Resident and medical student education
 - Support group talks
- Optional research and/or QI project involvement

Previous / Current Fellows

Fellow	Residency Program	Date of Fellowship	Current Position
Kylie Abe, MD	University of Vermont	July 1, 2020-June 30, 2022	Movement Disorders specialist, St. Luke's Meridian Medical Center, Idaho
Joseph Gross, MD	Montefiore Medical Center	July 1, 2022-December 31, 2023	Neurologist, NYC Health + Hospitals / Jacobi
Rebecca Pratt, MD	University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences	July 1, 2024 - present	