

National Improvement Partnership Network (NIPN) Annual Meeting

Millennium Maxwell House Hotel
Grand Ballroom West
Nashville, TN
November 14-15, 2016

Agenda

Day 1

8:30 Welcome & Introductions

NIPN Ahead

9:00 NIPN leadership will highlight accomplishments of the past year and share plans for NIPN's next 1-2 years

Judy Shaw, EdD, MPH, RN, Executive Director, NIPN and Wendy Davis, MD, Associate Director, NIPN

9:30 What Have You Done with Your IP Lately?

IPs share posters of their work during a facilitated discussion

10:30 Break & Networking Discussions

Hot Topic: Engaging Primary Care Practices in Population Management Strategies to Improve Health Outcomes

11:00 Discuss link between population and practice measures

Michael Warren, MD, MPH, Deputy Commissioner, Population Health, Tennessee Department of Health

12:00 Lunch (on your own)

Anticipating State Government Transitions: Hit the Ground Running

1:00 Facilitated activity and small group discussions on how to prepare for government transition

Wendy Davis, MD, Associate Director, NIPN

Potential Partnership Strategies with Local Community Development Non-Profits

2:00 A look from the perspective of PHiIT's local partners on how integrating local health development, schools and nonprofit organizations in QI work has effectively fostered positive changes for Chattanooga children and families.

Allen Coffman, Jr., MD, Medical Director, Pediatric Healthcare Improvement Initiative for Tennessee (PHiIT)

2:45 Break

Overview of work: Kitchen Cabinet - Medicaid Payment, Health Equity and Disparity

3:00 Charlie Bruner, PhD, Founding Director, Child and Family Policy Center (CFPC)

4:00 Summation of Day One

Judy Shaw, EdD, MPH, RN and Wendy Davis, MD

Networking Reception (optional)

6:30 Spend time with your colleagues from across the country in one of Nashville's newest high rise buildings with beautiful views of the city followed by a walk down Broadway Avenue, a historic street, in the heart of Country Music and features Nashville's World Famous Honkytonks!

The Pinnacle at Symphony Place, 150 3rd Ave. South (Advanced Registration Required)

Visit NIPN online at www.nipn.org or contact us nipn@uvm.edu • 802-656-8210

Day 2

7:30 Breakfast (optional)

8:00 Overview of Day Two

Building Bridges

Participate in both large and small group discussions focusing on building bridges between your IP and the following four groups

Facilitator: Mark Weissman, MD, Director, DC Partnership to Improve Children's Healthcare Quality (DC PICHQ)

Academia - using your IP work for academic advancement

David Wood, MD, MPH, Professor and Chair, Department of Pediatrics, ETSU College of Medicine

Title V / Public Health - linking your IP to Title V NPM (National Performance Measures) and other state measures (CHIPRA, ACO)

8:15 Tessa Wetjen, MPA, Maternal Mental Health Planner, Minnesota Department of Health

Families - partnerships between your IP and family organizations

Colleen Reuland, MS, Director Oregon Pediatric Improvement Partnership (OPIP)

Representatives of TN Disability Coalition

Kara Adams, Project Coordinator, TN P2P, Parent of adolescent with rare congenital heart defect

Donna DeStefano, Assistant Executive Director, Tennessee Disability Coalition

Belinda Hotchkiss, Director, Family Voices of Tennessee

Inpatient / Hospitals - developing partnerships with quality based programs

Alan E. Kohrt, MD, Chief Medical Officer, Children's Hospital at Erlanger

10:15 Break

Portfolios: to be or not to be?

10:30 Pros and Cons of Becoming a Portfolio Sponsor

Virginia A. Moyer, MD, MPH, Vice President, Maintenance of Certification and Quality with ABP

Bright Futures

11:30 Learn about anticipated new topics in the upcoming 4th edition, approach to screening including social determinants of health and discussion about implementing BF in practice

Judy Shaw, EdD, MPH, RN and Francis E. Rushton, Jr., MD Medical Director, SC Quality through Technology and Innovation in Practice (QTIP)

12:15 Networking Lunch (meal provided)

Participate in facilitated interactive discussions on hot topics of interest to you

Improving the Delivery of Adolescent and Young Adult (AYA) Health Care

1:30 Hear about NIPN's cross-state collaboratives to improve AYA health care and outcomes, including the latest results from the National Immunization Partnership with the APA to increase HPV vaccination rates!

Wendy Davis, MD

Technology and Health

2:30 How do we adapt our QI to help improve systems of care and address how these are being implemented with a QI strategy

Kirsten Bennett, PhD, RD, LD, QI Training, Consultation and Outreach, Envision New Mexico

Setting the Stage to Return Home: Capturing New Ideas and Putting them into Action

3:15 Participants will reflect on lessons learned over the training and identify 2-3 key tools/techniques/strategies to act upon when returning home

4:00 Conclusion of meeting

Please note: times and speakers are subject to change