The following is from Dr. Huggett

Hello OME colleagues,

I am writing to share the news that Amanda Broder, Teaching Academy coordinator, has accepted a position outside of LCOM. Amanda joined the Teaching Academy on March 26, 2018 and has been instrumental in planning and implementing the many events and activities that support the Teaching Academy's members -- as well as all members of our LCOM community who aim to provide high-quality teaching, assessment, and educational scholarship. Amanda has also contributed service to LCOM in numerous ways including serving on Staff Council, serving as an OMSE Wellness Ambassador, proctoring exams, assisting at medical student special events, and sharing her crafting, baking, and children's book industry knowledge.

While we will miss Amanda and her many contributions, please join me to wish her well in her new endeavor. A note from Amanda appears below.

I have accepted a position as the Office Manager in the Department of Communications on main campus. My last day at LCOM will be Friday, October 8. It has been a pleasure getting to know you all and working with you over the past few years. I will miss this amazing community. But I'll just be a short wellness walk away in Waterman!

Amanda's last day in the office will be October 8. We are working on plans for posting the position. After 10/8 please direct messages to teaching.academy@med.uvm.edu if you are uncertain about whom to contact.

Finally, please plan to stop by the Teaching Academy for an Open House on October 8, between 3:30 and 4:00 PM, to say farewell (safely) and thank Amanda for her many contributions to LCOM. If the weather cooperates we will meet outside, between Dana Medical Library and Converse Hall.

Sincerely,
Katie
