

Who do you share your AYA behavioral health-related data with? Be sure to note which organization you represent.

We share the data that we receive from the clinical arm of CollN with the stakeholders that participate in the public health arm. Stakeholders include not limited to: School Based Alliance, United Healthcare Plan of California, office of equity

State health dpt shares all data with everyone via published reports on the website and via presentations when requested.

Dept of health- we share YRBS data with state and local partners, including departments of education, mental health, local health depts,

State health department shares with aap chapter

SAMHSA, Dept of Ed

Office of Mental Health and Substance Abuse, DOH

Iowa Department of Public Health we share with our local Title V Contractors, Medicaid, DHS, Child Death Review Team,

Ohio Department of Health- federal funders; injury prevention coalition members; local health departments; Health systems upon request

Government funders and partners

Who shares their AYA behavioral health-related data with you? Be sure to note which organization you represent.

Title V Contractors, Medicaid, DHS, Child Death Review Team, YRBS coordinators, Iowa Youth Survey coordinator

Hmm. Sometimes Medicaid and ACO but not routine

Public health- departments of Medicaid, education, mental health and addiction services, also data sharing within state dept of health (violence and injury, primary care)

The government, Dept of Health, Medicaid

No one except this group, which has diverse collaborations

County health departments,