

Getting Started:

Student Accessibility Services

EARLY PLANNING IS ESSENTIAL

THE UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT
STUDENT ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES
DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

Determine Eligibility

- Criteria:
 - Complete the online “Getting Started” Form
 - Staff follows up with next steps
 - Documentation
- Documentation should provide:
 - History of accommodations
 - Educational impact of diagnosis
 - Recommendations
- Beyond the classroom
 - Clinical
 - Residential Housing
 - Campus Programming

EARLY PLANNING IS ESSENTIAL

A Confidential Process

- Meetings and files are Confidential
- Documentation is kept separate from your LCOM student files
- Even when using accommodations, your diagnosis/disability type is never released to faculty
- LCOM programs needs advanced notice to implement an accommodation, from 1 week to several months

Next Steps-

EARLY PLANNING IS ESSENTIAL

- Complete our online “Getting Started” form (located on our myACCESS Student Portal)

- SAS will communicate next steps via UVM email, with the ability to schedule an appointment online

- Provide documentation (ACCESS@uvm.edu, fax at 802.656.0730)

Questions?

If you have more specific questions you would like to discuss, please contact us.

ACCESS@uvm.edu

P: (802) 656-7753