UVM Larner College of Medicine Class of 2020 Commencement Ceremony

Ticket FAQ

Tickets will be available online to degree candidates only from Wednesday, April 15 at 10:00 AM (EDT) – Friday, May 1 at 12:00 noon (EDT). Each degree candidate is eligible to receive up to six tickets.

Who needs a ticket?

Degree candidates do not need a ticket to participate in the Robert Larner, M.D. College of Medicine Commencement Ceremony.

Anyone who is not a degree candidate will need a ticket. Guests will not be admitted without a ticket. If a child under one year of age will be sitting on a parent's lap for the entirety of the event and does not need their own seat, they do not need a ticket.

Faculty who participate in the faculty procession do not need a ticket.

Who can reserve tickets?

Tickets will be available online to degree candidates only. Guests seeking tickets must connect with their degree candidate. Degree candidates do not need a ticket to participate in the Robert Larner, M.D. College of Medicine Commencement Ceremony.

When can tickets be reserved?

Wednesday, April 15 at 10:00 AM (EDT) - Friday, May 1 at 12:00 noon (EDT)

How can tickets be reserved?

Larner College of Medicine degree candidates will receive an email from Academic_Ceremonies@uvm.edu sent to their UVM email (NOT their MED.UVM.EDU) account on Wednesday, April 15. The email will include a link to the University of Vermont University Tickets web page where they will be asked to log-in with their UVM Net ID and password. Once logged-in, degree candidates will be able to reserve their tickets and print them out at any time and/or send them to their family and friends.

If you are a degree candidate and you do not receive an email on Wednesday, April 15 from Academic_Ceremonies@uvm.edu (make sure you check your junk mail folder) sent to your UVM email account by 11:00 a.m. (EDT), please contact Lila Sullivan at lila.sullivan@med.uvm.edu as soon as possible for assistance.

How many tickets can be reserved?

Larner College of Medicine degree candidates may reserve up to 6 tickets each. Tickets cannot be duplicated. Guests will be required to have their printed tickets with them at all times and will need them for entry, exit and re-entry at the Ira Allen Chapel.

Guests without tickets may view the ceremony on a large screen display in the Billings/Ira Allen Lecture Hall.

What if I need more than 6 tickets?

If a degree candidate would like more than 6 tickets, additional tickets may be available (but are not guaranteed) on a first-come, and will be allocated on first-serve basis starting Monday, May 4 at 12:00 noon (EDT).

Additional tickets may be requested via the University Tickets website at the same time your 6 allotted tickets are requested. Please note that submitting a request for additional tickets is not a guarantee that you will be able to receive more than your original 6 tickets; it will merely get you on a waiting list for additional tickets in the event there are leftover tickets after the initial reservation period.

If there are tickets remaining after the initial reservation period, each degree candidate who has requested additional tickets will be given up to 3 additional tickets in the order requested via the University Tickets website until there are no more tickets left. If additional tickets remain after this initial lottery, each degree candidate who has requested additional tickets will be given up to 2 additional tickets in the order requested until there are no more tickets left - and so forth.
